

Climb to Guthega Power Station, then retrace to Kosciuszko Rd, and climb to Charlotte Pass, then retrace steps back toward Jindabyne, turn to Thredbo before reaching Jindabyne.

The map displays the Snowy Mountains region in New South Wales, Australia. A red line indicates a route starting from Jindabyne, heading north to Guthega, then west to Charlotte Pass, and south to Thredbo, before returning to Jindabyne. Key locations marked include Jindabyne, Guthega, Charlotte Pass, Thredbo, and Dalgety. The Snowy Mountains Highway (M1) is shown as a yellow line. Various creeks and rivers are labeled, including the Snowy River, Murrumbidgee River, and Murrumbidgee Creek. The map also shows the Kosciuszko National Park and the Snowy Mountains National Park. The NSW logo is visible in the bottom right corner.
